- Purposeful Leadership journey, fusing the best of Modern and Bharat Indian Wisdom (Vag & Athahadani), retaining my wisdom about the impact of conversations and collaborative decision making.
- Sharpening the work on financials - Capex, Working Capital, RoCE in wake of post covid economy service levels.
- Building supply chain resilience for a FMCD branded operation.
- Enjoyed setting up E-commerce B2C & B2B operations servicing diverse marketplaces with a unique omnichannel supply chain.
- Creating a lean/retail Customer Service function, bringing in technology, science and the art of resolving problems together.
- Large Heterogeneous teams and evolving functions gave me the opportunity to create strong people structures and future leaders.
- Advising an energetic talented digital marketing startup along with an educational venture focusing on usage of ancient Indian pedagogies.
- Have earlier enjoyed Demand run Inventory Management and Customer Logistics in the International Business arena within the Pharma space.

Mr. Rajat Sharma
 Hamilton Muscat Private Limited - India

Recent Pandemic:

- WHs on rentals: New negotiations
- WH spaces reduced
- Consolidation
- Move to wider logistics reliance, lower WH penetration

“Product Development & Design” - 3Rs (Reduce, Reuse, and Recycle)?

- Lithium batteries to dry batteries; Electronic waste & Mobile waste: Packaging (low gum plastic, no plastic, no paper)
- “Cradle to Grave” - the sequence of processes needs to be looked at from an end to end perspective
- Coca Cola: selling bravery, freshness, thirst, glamour, humor - now paper bottles; now post-covid everybody sells virus free products,
- Respect: Gods of water earth fire air space

Corporate Finance

The challenge for corporate finance professionals is to maximise corporate value and reduce financial risk.

Treasurers, internal auditors and financial analysts are all corporate finance jobs.

Large-scale multinational organisations as well as small-sized companies require these skilled professionals.
